

How many hours per week may I work during my program?

A common question raised by students is if they can work on campus and participate in authorized Curricular Practical Training (CPT) at the same time.

During required semesters (usually fall and spring), a student may work up to 20 hours per week. This includes both on and off-campus. During school breaks, as in summer and winter,